

Library to Host Community Read

The Council Grove Public Library will be hosting a Community Read event on Wednesday, January 29th at 7:00 pm. Kitty Frank will be leading a discussion on “Racing: Indian Style” by Charles Curtis. The book features abridged manuscripts found in the Kansas State Historical Society Museum Archives in Topeka, KS. Kitty Frank prepared the book for publication so that people could read excerpts from the life of our 33rd Vice-President and the first person of significant Native American heritage to make it to the top of the United States government. Thanks to the generosity of the Friends of Kaw Heritage group, the Library now owns 25 copies of this book, which are all available for check out at the front desk. We hope you join us to discuss part of Kansas history on Kansas Day! Light refreshments will be provided. If you are interested in attending the event or have questions, please call us at 620-767-5716.
